Citizens promoting environmentally safe operation of the Alyeska terminal and associated tankers

DID YOU KNOW?

You can buy tickets now for the wildly popular Copper River Nouveau, an annual salmon feast and fundraiser for Prince William Sound Science Center in Cordova. This year's event takes place on June 16.

A SOUND APPROACH TO...

Keeping up on the 2007 Iditarod. Find out who's racing, learn about checkpoints, and see what challenges mushers face along the trail.

COUNCIL NEWS

- The council is hiring for two positions: Maritime Operations Project Manager and Project Manager Assistant. Please see our employment web page for details.
- Jessica Cler, Administrative Assistant in the council's Anchorage office, has taken a job with the Alaska Center on the Environment as their Canvassing Director. We wish her well in her future endeavors and thank her for all her hard work.
- Mary Schonberger, staff member in our Anchorage office, has been promoted to the newly developed position of Office Manager. In addition to providing administrative support for the Anchorage office, Mary will assume duties to assist the Financial Manager and Director of Administration.
- Learn more about the council's involvement in the current state contingency plan renewals.
- Our Council may WANT YOU! We are seeking volunteers for standing committees. These committees work with staff to advance projects, and with representatives of Alyeska, other industry groups, and regulatory agencies. Please follow the link above to see which committees are looking for volunteers, as well as for general information on our committees, and a volunteer application.
- See our new Media Kit, a one-page, quick reference guide to our organization.
- Remember, Daylight Saving Time starts March 11 this year (instead of in April). Move your clocks forward one hour. Another site to visit is the U.S. Naval Observatory's page on Daylight Saving Time.

Q&A

Q: What can youth do to get involved with the council?

A. Kids, teens, and young adults can start by visiting our Youth Involvement web page. We also actively seek younger people as members of our all-volunteer committees. To find out more about this and other ways to make a difference, call Outreach Coordinator Linda Robinson at 907.273.6235 or email her at robinson@pwsrcac.org.
