WELCOME

In honor of the new year, The Sound Approach has a fresh look. You'll still find the same headings and layout as before, but we've added the banner above and changed the color scheme. Please let our webmaster know if you have problems viewing this newsletter.

DID YOU KNOW?

You can read about Alyeska Pipeline Service Co. employees online. Get to know the people behind the pipeline and the Valdez terminal.

COUNCIL NEWS

- Longtime council board member Stan Stephens recently resigned his position. Stephens represented the Alaska Wilderness Recreation and Tourism Association, or AWRTA. The council has been informed that AWRTA will appoint a new representative soon. We thank Stan for all of his hard work and wish him the very best.
- The council's next board meeting takes place in Anchorage at the Sheraton Hotel on January 24-25. As always, our meetings are open to the public. Please see the board meeting agenda and corresponding documents on our website.
- We are seeking consultants knowledgeable about tug capabilities and tanker/ship rescue towing operations near the Gulf of Alaska/Prince William Sound intersection at Hinchinbrook Entrance. See the RFP.
