

SCIENCE

WIGHT

DETAILS:

Thursday,
November 30th

Embassy Suites
Anchorage
@ 600 E Benson Blvd

DOORS OPEN:

4:30 p.m.

Complimentary
hors d'oeuvres &
cash bar available

PWSRCAC presents Science Night 2017
Featured Topics & Speakers:

For more information:
1.907.277.7222
info@pwsrcac.org
www.pwsrcac.org

5:15 p.m.

"Canine Detection of Spilled Oil" by Scott Pegau, PWSSC

5:45 p.m.

"We Are Watching: A long-term monitoring program in the northern Gulf of Alaska" by Mandy Lindeberg, Auke Bay Laboratories

BREAK 6:15-6:30 p.m.

6:30 p.m.

"PWS Subsistence Survey" by James (Jim) Fall, AK Dept. of Fish & Game

7:00 p.m.

"Seabird Habitat Restoration: A case study in predation reduction" by Sam Stark, Graduate Student OSU

7:30 p.m.

"A Low Angle View: Making sense of Cook Inlet's complex rock platform and reef habitats" by Susan Saupe, CIRCAC

Special recognition to the Board of Directors of both the Cook Inlet RCAC and Prince William Sound RCAC for their commitment to exploring ways of working collaboratively on shared goals.

Regional Citizens' Advisory Council

Disclaimer: Sadly, science heroes Bill and Neil have nothing to do with our Science Night, although we bet they would give it a thumbs-up if they did!