PWSRCAC PRESENTS... BRUAL CCICK NIGHT 2002

You're invited!

On Thursday night, December 4, please join PWSRCAC at Josephine's in Anchorage's Sheraton Hotel for an evening of exciting and informative presentations.

Doors open at 5:30pm with complimentary hors d'oeuvres
Presentations start at 6:30pm
No-host bar available.

Please RSVP to Amanda Johnson: amanda.johnson@pwsrcac.org

114
907.273.6221 or

Regional Citizens' Advisory Council

Presentation Schedule

6:30-7:00pm Kodiak High School students, Sonia Sorto and Allie Bateman, will present their experiences as part of PWSRCAC's Green Crab Monitoring and Hull -Fouling Projects

7:00-7:30pm Rob Bochenek will be presenting his new work on the Prince William Sound Herring Data Portal and its integration with shorezone mapping as a tool for habitat identification

7:30-8:00pm Dr. Kathy Kuletz, from US Fish and Wildlife will discuss the importance of herring, and changes in herring abundance, to seabirds in Prince William Sound 8:00-8:30pm Meteorologist Eddie Zingone from the National Weather Service will be presenting information about barrier jets in the Gulf of Alaska and how they can influence local winds

8:30-9:00pm Dr. Jim Payne and Bill Driskell will present their work for PWSRCAC on the Long Term Environmental Monitoring Program (LTEMP)

For more information about PWSRCAC, including the Scientific Advisory Committee visit us on the web:

www.pwsrcac.org